Employers urged to pay fair wage

by Jack Dixon & Lottie Welch

EMPLOYERS have been urged to voluntarily adopt a new pay structure as part of an effort to make Bridport a "living wage town".

Town councillor Julian Jones said Bridport could set an example to communities up and down the country by making a stand on workers' welfare and encouraging local businesses to pay their staff at least £7.85 an hour.

The town council cannot force employers to pay the rate but elected members are considering a campaign to promote the idea.

Council officers are consulting with the chamber of commerce and the district tourism association before deciding whether to press ahead with the proposal.

Cllr Jones raised the subject at a meeting of the authority's environment and social wellbeing committee last week.

He said he wanted every worker in Bridport, aged 18 and over, to be paid a "fair" wage for their labour, putting the "welfare of workers above the interests of shareholders and bonus-glutted executives".

"If we have an opportunity to influence wages in the town then we ought to take it," said Cllr Jones.

"Young people can't afford to live here and plenty of them can't afford to work.

"We shouldn't be expecting to buy goods or services at the cost of really low-paid people. We ought to pay what things truly cost – the cost of production and a fair wage for those employed."

The town council is considering whether the scheme would be feasible and members will discuss the subject again in due course.

It will also seek the views of Bridport Business, the town's chamber of commerce, and the Bridport and District Tourism Association in the next few weeks.

Cllr Jones said he felt that members of the community were likely to back the principle of a 'living wage' for everyone in Bridport.

He added: "Bridport has such a strong community

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

IAN ROSENBLATT is a lawyer and senior partner of corporate law firm Rosenblatt Solicitors in London. As a supporter of charitable causes, notably in the field of classical music, he launched the Branscombe Festival in 2013, which returns later this month.

■ WHERE did the inspiration for the Branscombe music festival come from?
I HAVE had a house in Branscombe for over 15 years. Around five years ago I put on a concert in the Village Hall and it was a resounding success, accruing a lot of local support. I then thought that a festival would be a good way to bring more people to the village, to visit the beautiful St Winifred's church, the beach, the village hall and, of course, to patronise the local pubs, cafes and hotels.

■ THIS is the third Branscombe Music festival, how has it developed since you first started?
THE festival is going from strength to strength and has had a fantastic reaction from the local community. Over the last three years we've been spreading the word to ensure that as many people as possible – from Devonshire and beyond – can experience all that the festival has to offer.

■ WHO will be performing at the festival?
WE'VE got a wonderful programme this year and are welcoming an array of talent to Branscombe, from internationally acclaimed opera stars Susan Bullock CBE, Francesco Meli and Angel Blue to Ronnie Scott's regulars, dance band The Leo Green Experience and rising star soul singer Danny Toeman. There will also be two highly contrasting instrumental quartets performing this year: a classic string quartet, the Sacconi quartet and 4-MALITY, a percussion quartet, which is a rarity and much anticipated.

■ WHO are you most looking forward to seeing?
I'M hugely looking forward to each and every performance – each artist brings something unique to the festival – but I have to say that the procession through the village by the Band of the Royal Marines followed by a free concert on Branscombe Beach will be quite spectacular!

■ WHAT should festivalgoers be looking out for?
THE Royal Marines procession is definitely not one to miss. Also over the weekend there will be a hog roast and a cream tea – both real treats. In terms of faces to look out for, our presenter Petroc Trelawny will be around and should make things quite lively, as will all of the performers, no doubt!

■ WHAT makes the Branscombe music festival unique?
IT HAS an idiosyncratic mission: to host world-class performers in Branscombe village's intimate, unusual settings, from St Winifred's Church to the idyllic Branscombe beach. Also, given the number of people the festival brings to the village, it creates excellent opportunities to support local businesses.

■ DOES the festival raise money?
YES, fundraising is definitely an important part of the festival, and the causes we support are chosen with great care. Last year a proportion of ticket sales were donated to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution – a life-saving charity with whom Branscombe has strong ties - and this year we will be donating to St Winifred's Church fund.

■ WHAT'S the most important thing to remember about planning large events, such as the music festival?
THE devil is in the detail.

▼ THE Branscombe Festival takes place from Friday, July 24th to Sunday, July 26th.
Artists performing include 4-Mality; The Sacconi Quartet; soprano Susan Bullock with pianist Richard Sisson; tenor Francesco Meli & soprano Angel Blue with pianist Matteo Pais; and The Leo Green Experience with Danny Toeman.
For more information, visit the web site branscombefestival.co.uk.

Review on future of NHS services delayed

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedia.co.uk

HEALTH commissioners have delayed a key consultation on the future of NHS services, amid warnings that campaigners in Bridport will face a "fight" to save their community hospital.

The Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), a body of GPs responsible for planning and acquiring healthcare services for people across the county, has announced it is moving back its controversial review.

Clinicians had hoped to finalise their proposals for sweeping changes to the health service in Dorset this summer, with a view to publishing the plans for the community to comment on in August.

But now the CCG says more time is needed to complete the work and the consultation is likely to begin early next year.

Health chiefs say they have been looking at GP, community health and hospital services since October, aiming to find new ways to deliver the "highest quality of care for patients".

All services can be better organised, with staff working more closely together to provide the greatest benefit to local people and make the most of limited funding, they say.

But concerned residents fear this will mean reductions in local facilities and even hospital closures.

Speaking at a recent meeting, Bridport councillor Ros Kayes said: "We know that they want to close six or seven of the 12 community hospitals [in Dorset] so I think that Bridport will potentially have to fight a campaign, just as we did in 2011/12."

She added: "We need to get as many people as possible to respond to this consultation."

The CCG are yet to publish detailed proposals but the GP-led body has indicated that "making no changes is not an option".

In January, it unveiled a report entitled 'The Need To Change', outlining the county's major healthcare challenges.

The document reveals a long list of pressures on NHS services, which the CCG says it "cannot continue" to deliver in the same way.

It says now is the time to "face up to the issues" and "take action" to tackle a potential financial shortfall of up to £200 million over the next five years.

Dr Forbes Watson, chairman of the CCG, said: "We have a clear vision of what we think we need to do to improve healthcare in Dorset, but want to do more detailed thinking, planning and analysis to help set out clearly to the public how we think we would realise those ambitions.

"New information is coming through that we want to look at closely before finalising our proposals, for example, how Dorset might best respond to national NHS policy.

"We will continue our regular discussion with our health and care partners and to share our thinking with patients and members of the public so that when we do go out to formally consult, people will have as much information as possible.

"This is a once-in-a-generation opportunity to re-shape the NHS in Dorset and to improve services for local people – we have to get it right."

Chemo nurses to be based at Bridport hospital

CANCER patients in Bridport will be able to access NHS chemotherapy services closer to home by the end of the month, after health chiefs announced an extension of the programme.

Specialist chemotherapy nurses will be based at Bridport Community Hospital, saving patients a long journey for treatment.

Dorset County Hospital's chemotherapy service is currently based in Dorchester and the team has been offering extra provision at Westhaven Hospital in Weymouth since last year.

But patients in Bridport have been without access to the treatment and were required to make the trip across West Dorset to receive the services.

Now the programme is being delivered closer to home to help cancer sufferers access the treatment.

Abigail Orchard, lead cancer nurse, said: "Patients in Bridport and the surrounding area have had to travel a long way to get to Dorset County Hospital for their chemotherapy, which is added stress they could well do without.

"Taking the service closer to people's homes will make a huge difference and we are really grateful to the Bridport Hospital matron and her staff for helping us to make this happen."

The Living Tree is a self-help support group based in Bridport, offering support to people who have experienced cancer as well as their families and carers.

Jo O'Farrell, one of the group's founders, said the close-to-home service would make a huge difference for local patients.

"Chemotherapy is tough to deal with," she said.

"Providing it in Bridport will mean less tiredness, fatigue and nausea from travelling.

"And it will make it so much easier for patients without their own transport to get essential treatment in a rural area like ours."

NHS bosses say the outreach service will be extended to Bridport by the end of July.

REACHING OUT: Outreach chemotherapy team members Karen Buckingham, Charlotte Hatton, Erica Mason and Glenda Dredge will be providing services for Bridport cancer patients from the end of July

A SEAGULL has been discovered in a "near death state" outside Bridport Police Station, following a suspected poisoning.

The "cruel" incident has prompted speculation that the birds may have been targeted in a "backlash" against recent attacks.

Officers from the Bridport Safer Neighbourhood Team discovered the gull on Friday (July 17th) and posted an image via social media of the bird in a distressed condition.

The RSPCA were called to the scene and took the gull and its chick into their specialist care.

But the incident has sparked concern that someone may have deliberately poisoned the animal.

PC Scott McGregor, from the Bridport team, said: "Love them or loathe them, one of our resident seagulls is suffering following a suspected poisoning.

"If you know of anyone engaging in this cruel manner towards protected birds, please contact the RSPCA."

The incident follows two recent seagull attacks in the South West.

The birds swooped on a chihuahua puppy in Honiton in May, and in a similar incident last week, gulls killed a Yorkshire Terrier in Newquay.

Under the Wildlife and Countryside Act, gulls are protected by law and it is an offence to "intentionally kill, injure or take any wild bird".

The Bridport Safer Neighbourhood Team posted an image of the distressed seagull via its Facebook page, following the suspected poisoning spirit that it would be natural for the town to try and lead on this.

Councillor calls for 'living wage town'

"If we as a town can start this sort of thing, other towns may well take it up and follow it. If we want to promote the living wage, this seems the place to start."

Councillor Ros Kayes said more local authorities should take action in their communities to encourage businesses to look after their staff.

"It's only through councils taking a stand that we can get employers to take it seriously," she said.

"It's incumbent on public authorities and public bodies to put this out and let people know that Bridport is actually a low-income town – £7.85 isn't an enormous amount and it is scary to think that some people aren't earning that."

Richard Smith, president of Bridport Business, said the chamber would work closely with the council to develop the initiative.

He added: "It is good news that not only are the council looking at improving the living conditions of individuals, they are taking the time to consult carefully with the relevant groups before committing to any decision."

MP announced as charity patron

BRIDPORT mental health charity 'Moving On' has announced that West Dorset MP Oliver Letwin will be its new patron.

Mr Letwin recently visited one of the organisation's sessions in Lyme Regis where he was impressed with the group's work supporting people recovering from mental health problems.

The local charity was established in Bridport in 2006 and now provides a support group and social club for people across West Dorset.

Peter Tobutt, the charity's chairman, said it was "fantastic news" to have Mr Letwin on board as patron and that the group's many volunteers were also pleased.

He added: "I hope Mr Letwin's support will help our fundraising activities and heighten the profile of Moving On in West Dorset."

The charity meets every Tuesday at the Youth and Community Centre in Bridport, and on Fridays at the Hub in Lyme Regis, between 10.30am and 1.30pm.

Its next fundraising event is a Chicago Bridge session at Burton Bradstock Village Hall on Tuesday (July 28th) at 1.45pm. Some tickets are still available and can be purchased from Christine by calling 01308 898334 or 01308 898117.

The group is also seeking to recruit more volunteers to help run the sessions and to expand the charity's activities. For more information, call Esther on 07503 547152.

Black Rats warm up in Bridport

THE Ropemakers pub on West Street will play host to some very special musical guests this Friday (July 24th) with a visit from The Black Rats.

The band have been put together specifically to play the Outcider Festival in Somerset later this month but have chosen the Bridport pub as a venue for their warm-up show before the big occasion.

They will play some of their original material with a mixture of cider songs and support will be provided by up and coming Bristol band Imprints, who play fiddle-driven shanty rock.

John Baker, landlord at The Ropemakers, said: "We are delighted that The Black Rats chose The Ropemakers as the venue for one of their four only gigs and we are looking forward to a night of top quality music and merriment."

It is free entry and music starts at 9pm.

CLIMATE change campaigners from across West Dorset have organised a meeting with local MP Oliver Letwin, after lobbying him at Westminster last month.

A subsequent meeting has been arranged, to be attended by Mr Letwin, at the Corn Exchange in Dorchester on Friday, September 18th at 7.30pm.

Campaigners hope to arrange an additional meeting in Bridport this autumn.

West Bay art show

A ONE-woman art show is still open and available to see at The Old Timber Yard in West Bay before it finishes on Sunday (July 26th).

The exhibition - called 'Ships in the Night' - features miniature worlds inside cases and tins, taxidermy animals, sculpted and painted art forms, stories and collages by local artist Katrina Rose.

She has also transformed 50 pairs of dance shoes into ships with sheet music for sails, which are suspended from the ceiling, and called 'Ship Shoes'.

The show is open today, Thursday and Friday from 10am to 4pm and Saturday and Sunday from 11am to 6pm.

Children have their own 'Oscars' ceremony

STUDENTS at St Mary's Primary School were rewarded with an achievers service at St Mary's Church, South Street, for "superb" results this year.

A student in each year group was awarded with a replica 'Oscar Award' for their work in reading, and there were prizes for those students that excelled in different subjects.

Headteacher Helen Farmer said: "This was a lovely way to celebrate so many of our pupils' achievements across the year, some whose progress was outstanding and others who had shown us what fantastic readers, scientists, mathematicians and sporting superstars they were.

"We are incredibly proud of our Year Six pupils whose SATs results this year are superb. They have been a really good group of young people whose care for our pupils and each other has contributed significantly to school life.

"They will be an asset to their secondary schools and we wish them well."

The service was also an opportunity for staff, students, families and friends to say goodbye to those in Year Six who are going to secondary school in September.

They were presented with bibles and dictionaries and all sang a song to mark the occasion and the Reverend Peter Stone gave them a blessing.

Other achievers at the school were also recognised and rewarded with a morning at the Holy Trinity Church in Bradpole learning about bell ringing.

The younger children were invited to a special tea party to play games and enjoy food with the Reverend Peter Stone and headteacher Helen Farmer.

Mrs Farmer said: "These children always make the right choices in class and with their learning.

"We wanted to acknowledge this and make them feel special."

■ STUDENTS were awarded replica 'Oscars' for all their hard work over the last school year

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

'Love nut' auction

THE Auction House of Bridport will be offering for sale one of the rarest, and largest seeds in the plant kingdom.

The Coco de Mer is a huge nut from a scarce palm tree found in the Seychelles. The sale of these nuts is now regulated to protect the palms, which are guarded day and night from poachers.

The shape of the nut is reminiscent of the lower part of a woman's body, indeed one of the old botanical names can be translated from the Greek as "beautiful rump"!

Many legends arose due to the mysterious nature of the 'love nut' being washed up on beaches, or suddenly appearing to arise from the seabed.

Sailors thought that the nuts originated from strange underwater forests, and that they cured all ills, including poisons.

In the Maldives, any Coco de Mer seeds found were to be immediately handed in to the King; if they were kept, then the owner could receive the death penalty!

This fine example has a dark, polished patina and dates from the 19th Century, having been in the local vendor's family for many years

It is anticipated to sell for £400-£600 in the sale on Friday, July 31st at St Michael's Trading Estate, Bridport.

■ Please note that the Auction House not have a 'live on-line' bidding facility on saleday. Commission bids can be submitted by email or telephone and 'live' telephone bidding can usually be arranged.

Garden party fundraiser

BRIDPORT resident Lesley Archibald (fourth left) raised more than £370 for Refugee Support Network and Cupboard Love food bank by hosting a friends and neighbours garden party

A BRIDPORT resident frustrated with negative comments about immigration during the general election hosted a fundraiser earlier this month to generate cash for charities helping families and immigrants, writes Lottie Welch.

Lesley Archibald organised a garden party in aid of Cupboard Love food bank in Bridport and the Refugee Support Network, which helps young people access and progress in education.

Guests enjoyed a spread of home-cooked food and music from singing duo 'Two's Company'.

So far the event has raised £370 for the two charities, with more money expected to come in.

Lesley said: "In the days leading up to the election, people were talking all the time about scroungers and the 'immigrant and refugee problem' in the UK – there was so much negative criticism when there are lots of people struggling.

"I thought, how do you make it clear that you don't go along with that? So I decided to raise some money.

"I am really pleased with the support, no one considered it not to be a good cause. Leakers Bakery has also been fabulous in providing bread and scones and the couple who played music charged very little."

Calls to 101 holding up police work

POLICE in Dorset are being held up by thousands of inappropriate calls to the force's non-emergency line.

Recent nuisance calls have come from people asking for taxis and bank opening times, as well as school administration details and court contact information.

One individual phoned in to report a dropped mobile phone, while another caller sought assistance after discovering a basket of kittens.

Officers are urging members of the public to think carefully before they contact the 101 service, with call handlers unable to deal with the huge number of unnecessary messages.

Dorset Police receives around 1,300 non-emergency calls every day but can only respond to two thirds of these within 30 seconds.

A total of 306,298 were directed to the 101 number between July 2014 and March 2015 – and the force says the high volume of calls means there will inevitably be delays in responding to enquiries.

Senior officers are now appealing for members of the public to only call the 101 number when they require a non-urgent police response, such as stolen or damaged property, or to provide information about a crime.

Superintendent Caroline Naughton, head of contact management, said: "It is very important that the public use the 101 service appropriately.

"We continue to receive inappropriate calls, which put more demand on our system and potentially reduce availability of call handlers.

"If the matter isn't urgent then please leave a message or email us.

"We have dedicated staff managing emails and responding to voicemails, and we will reply to you promptly."

The force says it receives a litany of misdirected, unnecessary and nuisance calls each month.

Officers also report queries that should be sent to the relevant local authority, such as dog fouling, abandoned or badly parked vehicles and fly-tipping.

Dorset Police says it is working hard to respond to all appropriate calls as quickly as possible.

Superintendent Naughton added: "Policing is complex and therefore some calls will take longer to deal with, such as the reporting of crimes, as we need to ensure all details are correct, provide support to the victim and ensure safeguarding is in place.

"Calls of this nature may take over 30 minutes to deal with and therefore the availability of call handlers to answer calls is reduced."

Have your say on recycling

COUNTY council planners are encouraging people in Bridport to help shape proposals for the way waste and recycling is managed in the future.

Residents are being asked for their views on a number of sites, including household recycling centres and various waste treatment facilities, as well as potential sites for quarrying sand, gravel and other material.

Dorset County Council is preparing a blueprint plan, which will be used as a framework when considering future planning applications for minerals developments.

Contributions made by members of the community will be used to help shape the final proposals. The consultation began last week and ends on September 23rd. For more information, visit www.dorsetforyou.com/mwdf

Harbour Bites food festival

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedia.co.uk

THE first ever Harbour Bites food festival in aid of Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance has been a resounding success.

The two day event in West Bay took place last weekend and celebrated the best food and drink across Dorset and the South West with an array of food to go stalls and tasters from the producers.

Local producers, such as Chesil Smokery, The Dorset Pie Company and Dorset Nectar cider, filled Fisherman's Green while food stalls offering paella, burgers and noodles were situated outside The Salt House and in the Mound car park.

Nick Bryant, Samways factory manager, was giving demonstrations at the pop-up fish theatre, outside Samway's shop, where he demonstrated how to descale, fillet, debone and general preparation on a variety of different types of fish.

Live music from local artists and bands, including the Jurassic Drifters, Moveable Feast, Annabel Davies from Axminster, Stomping Dave and One Night Stand, played throughout the afternoon.

Festival organisers Caz Richards and Emily Attrill from the Hive Beach Café said: "It was a pleasure to meet and work with the traders who came from Dorset, Somerset, Devon and Cornwall.

"We were delighted to showcase some of the best food and drink from across the county and the South West.

"We tempted visitors to taste and buy a funky fusion of great local seasonal food and drink. As a first event we knew there would be a learning curve, but we are very pleased to see visitors to the festival have a great time."

And the foodie fun continued with a twilight street food market until 9pm, where visitors enjoyed a range of different food stands and live music.

Hospital staff rewarded for going the extra mile

DORSET County Hospital staff and volunteers received well deserved recognition for their hard work and dedication at the 2015 GEM Awards.

The awards are presented annually to people who have made an outstanding contribution to the hospital – Going the Extra Mile.

Colleagues, patients and relatives were asked to nominate hospital staff and volunteers for a number of awards to honour those who have gone over and above what is expected to make a difference to people's lives.

The winners received their awards from Trust Chairman Dr Jeffrey Ellwood, Chief Executive Patricia Miller and executive directors at a presentation ceremony held at Athelhampton House.

Guests also enjoyed songs and sketches from the DCH Players and a presentation to mark the 175th anniversary of the hospital from Arts in Hospital Manager Alex Murdin.

Mrs Miller said: "Our awards are a celebration of the amazing contribution and achievements of our staff and volunteers.

"Staff from throughout the organisation were recognised for their incredible efforts to ensure our patients receive the very best care possible.

"Every single GEM Award winner consistently goes above the call of duty to provide exceptional service and it was a great honour to present them with their awards."

The awards ceremony organisers would like to thank event sponsors Athelhampton House, Waitrose, Weightmans, Edenred, Cote and Robin James.

2 YEARS AT GORE CROSS
NEW PIECES OF HIGH TECH EQUIPMENT
ADDITIONAL MEMBERS OF STAFF

CREEDS have made a lot of changes since moving to Gore Cross Business Park two years ago and are continuing to improve and invest to ensure they are always providing their customers with the highest quality and service.

Rachel and Pippa have settled in very nicely as part of the team at Creeds. Rachel, who is Marilyn and Harry's eldest daughter has moved down from Bath and swapped a career as a French and German Teacher for a career in design and print.

Pippa is Creeds' friendly, customer facing bundle of fun. She has years of experience in customer service and is currently studying for a diploma in Print Administration with the British Print Federation.

STAFF, although obviously the most cherished of resources are not the only important change Creeds have made. The new digital Ricoh press was the first investment made while in the new premises, this high quality machine uses the latest laser technology, enabling Creeds to offer a wider range of sizes and products at competitive prices and as always premium quality. Another reason for choosing Ricoh was for the fantastic environmental credentials. Ricoh are one of the 'Global 100 most sustainable corporations in the world', this echoes Creeds' own environmental philosophy. This machine is set to be the first of many new investments.

To enhance binding capabilities, a high quality binder was purchased to ensure a strong and durable finish for those fantastically printed books!! Books bound with PUR glue are two and a half times stronger than that of a standard perfect bound book.

Creeds are not stopping there and have just invested heavily in a Heidelberg Speedmaster 5 colour perfecting press. Creeds are planning to hold an Open Event once the machinery is in place to show the range of services on offer.

Ricoh Digital Press

ON THE subject of great things that come in pairs, Creeds have TWO extremely talented lead designers, Kevin and Luke, backed up by additional resources on an as and when basis. The designers with a wealth of experience are extremely creative, professional and patient, all the things required for creating the perfect design. Whether you have a full design brief or a vague, clouded idea, it can be made into a work of art with a little help from the right people...AND HERE THEY ARE...

Kevin

Kevin has been a valued member of the team at Creeds for 8 years and has a fantastic eye for design. He most recently created Martin's Menus for Highlands End, which were very well received, "It is very rewarding to see a long established local business developing and expanding by taking advantage of a modern business building in the town. We need up-to-date marketing material to promote our business and it is great to be able to deal with a local supplier on the design of our publications which can then be printed in the town using modern techniques, material and machinery."

Martin Cox, West Dorset Leisure Holidays.

Luke

Luke is a man of many talents, as well as his creative artworking skills he is kept very busy at Creeds running the new digital press, as well as lending a hand print finishing.

Whatever project you have in mind, why not let Creeds help you achieve the result you are looking for!

For a stress-free experience, come in and see one of these lovely fellows, sit back and relax in the air-conditioned, second floor studio while they do all the hard work for you! You might even get treated to a nice cup of tea!

Students take part in pilot project

STUDENTS at The Sir John Colfox Academy have taken part in a pilot project designed to prepare them for the world of work.

The PiXL Edge project is a framework for schools that helps students develop personal and employability skills, including leadership, organisation, initiative, resilience and communication.

Students qualify at three levels - apprentice, graduate and master – having completed activity programmes related to the key attributes and accredited through the NCFE examination board.

The Colfox is one of just 200 schools trialling the programme, which is designed to prepare students for further education and future employment.

Head teacher Kay Taylor said she was impressed with the students' dedication.

"They are now being rewarded for all the extra things they do for the community, and that is really important," she said.

More than 50 students were presented with a certificate and bronze star to recognise that they had reached the apprentice level, during a ceremony on Friday July 10th.

These included Sir John Colfox students Maddy Herbert, Gus Johnson, Sam Clark and Jordan Hayter, with trophies being presented to Emily Hendry and Sam Clark for their outstanding commitment to the programme.

Year Eight student Emily Hendry said: "The Edge is a fun and interesting opportunity to showcase our talents and achievements, all whilst helping us plan for our future."

The week before, 15 students were invited to London to receive their Edge Apprentice certificates from Sir John Rowling, chair of the PiXL Club.

Teacher Andy David, who is leading the project at the school, said: "I think this is the most significant and exciting development in education, certainly in my teaching career and it is a privilege to be involved in such an outstanding project.

"There has never been a national programme that has been accredited and used by all schools, so we can now say that we genuinely recognise and reward everything that our students do, both inside and outside school.

"As well as this, we are also preparing our students for the best start in life and giving them 'the Edge' as they set out on their own journey into employment and further education.

"We would really like to thank PiXL for initiating this project and supporting us in the first year and school governor Charlotte Chadler for supporting the project through KPMG."

STUDENTS had the opportunity to visit KPMG in London and receive their certificates from Sir John Rowling, chair of the PiXL Club

St Mary's stages 'Wind in the Willows'

PUPILS at St Mary's Primary School entertained family, friends and staff with their rendition of Wind in the Willows for their end of year play.

Members of the Key Stage Two drama club took part in two performances of the children's novel and impressed the crowd with their memory of lines, acting and props.

Helen Farmer, head teacher at St Mary's Primary School, said: "Mrs Samuel, our Year Four teacher, with the help of teaching assistants Miss Larder and Mr Conley ran a drama club for the Key Stage Two children after school.

"The end result was amazing, the children were extremely professional and many of them had big parts with lots of lines to learn.

"The singing was beautiful and several children sang solos very bravely and confidently.

"All of this was helped by the fantastic boat and backdrops for the play. A very well done to all involved."

Preschool leavers' service

STAFF and children at Stepping Stones Preschool held their leavers' service last week (July 14th) for those children starting primary school in September.

Families gathered in Bridport United Church as the children presented their view of their year at the preschool with the use of pictures, props, rhymes and song.

Afterwards the seven leavers received books to mark the occasion presented by Peter Kershaw, one of the preschool's trustees.

The service concluded with the congregation singing 'One more step along the world I go', which was followed by refreshments served by Stepping Stones Preschool committee members and friends.

Eira Tuck, the preschool leader, said: "The children have such great enthusiasm, curiosity and in-built desire to learn and with the parents and families working with the preschool, the children are well prepared and ready for their next step along their journey in learning and life at primary school."

The seven going on to primary in September

Bridport CAB help on energy bills

STAFF and volunteers at Bridport and District Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) are helping residents to get the best deal on their energy bills.

They are offering special appointments to help customers find the cheapest supplier.

Rovarn Wickremasinghe, manager at Bridport CAB, said: "We at Bridport and District Citizens Advice can provide you with the help you need to change supplier, or, at the very least we can help you to obtain the cheapest deal from your existing supplier.

"To date, we have had 10 appointments and the total amount saved by our clients is £1,879, an average of £188 per client, with the biggest single saving being £427."

The cheapest tariff available can normally be found during an appointment lasting less than one hour to complete the switch of providers.

To arrange an Energy Best Deal appointment, call Bridport CAB on 01308 456594.

Saturday's model railway exhibition

BRIDPORT and District Model Railway Club hold their annual summer exhibition this Saturday.

Visitors can view a wide range of layouts at the United Church Hall, East Street, in various gauges and themes from both local and other exhibitors.

The Bridport club's layout will be based on the branch line to Maiden Newton together with some of the member's own layouts on show.

Alongside the model railways, there will be a display about the British Military Train, which ran to and from Berlin during the 'Cold War'.

The exhibition is on Saturday, July 25th from 10am to 4.30pm at Bridport United Church Hall.

Throughout the day there will be demonstrations, trade stands and refreshments available and everyone is welcome to attend.

Let there be light at the Lyric

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedia.co.uk

A CAMPAIGN to bring light to the Lyric has reached its funding target and is still going strong to raise even more money for replacement windows.

The mission to restore the windows of the Barrack Street theatre will receive it's funding but the team behind it are still encouraging people to pledge for the remaining days to enable them to repair even more windows on the building.

The campaign met the target of £9,850 11 days before it was due (on July 23rd) so a new target of £13,850 is hoping to be reached by tomorrow (July 23rd) at 6.30pm.

The extra money will go towards removing two additional windows that were not included in the campaign and black out shutters to make the space dark for performances.

The windows on the theatre have fallen into a state of disrepair and boarded up, some for over 40 years, and the campaign, led by the Lyric owner Niki McCretton, aims to reinstate the theatre to its former glory.

And so far they have received pledges not just from Bridport residents, but also from people in London, Bristol Bath, New York and Vancouver.

Niki McCretton said: "We are overwhelmed at the support that the community of Bridport have shown, enabling us to hit our target to replace the windows so quickly.

"We have also had donations from across the UK and from Canada and the USA from people who value a building such as this.

"All of us here want to say a heartfelt thank you to those who have pledged and come on board with us to get these windows replaced.

"Many people have been in touch asking if they can still give – the answer is yes as we have added a 'stretch target' on the online campaign page of £13,850.

"The donations that are still coming in will help us replace two additional windows that we didn't include in the original campaign and also allow us to commission some beautiful shutters so that we can make the space dark for performers."

To find out more about the campaign and to donate, visit www.crowdfunder.co.uk/let-there-be-light

Museum walks

BRIDPORT Museum's popular historical guided walks return this summer on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Bruce Upton, the museum's community engagement officer, will lead participants around some of Bridport's key sites in the town's development, from its Saxon origins through to the present day.

The walks are being held on July 21st, 23rd, 28th and 30th and August 4th, 6th, 11th, 13th, 17th, 18th, 20th, 25th.

They cost £2.50 per person and leave from the museum on South Street at 10am. No booking is required.

The easy level walks will last approximately one-and-a-half hours.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Francesca goes Dottie for healthy eating

WHEN offered to try out a personalised detox plan from Lyme Regis' new healthy eating takeaway, Dottie Kitchen, View From reporter Francesca Evans jumped at the chance.

"I'm a bit of a glutton," she said, "and I've struggled to keep my weight in check since I started putting on the pounds at university.

"The busy summer season never helps. From barbecues and beer festivals to weddings, there seems to be something on every weekend where food and drink are far too plentiful.

"But with my own sister's Big Day fast approaching and my bridesmaid dress not getting any looser, it was definitely time to start taking the diet more seriously.

"So when Dottie Kitchen asked if I wanted to try out their new diet plan, I was quick to take up the offer."

Having opened earlier this year, Dottie Kitchen has quickly proved a hit, particularly among residents and those working in the town who fancy a change from the usual pasty lunch.

Owner Ali McLoughlin is now offering personal diet and detox plans.

Francesca continued: "I've tried dieting a hundred times but finally, with the support of Ali and her team, I mustered up the drive and determination to stick this one out.

"We started by discussing my usual diet and lifestyle, my food likes and dislikes and different diet methods.

"Ali taught me about the method of food combining, which entails pairing food types which can be digested easily together rather than the protein and carbohydrates found in my everyday meat, potato and veg dinners.

"I decided to give this a go at dinnertimes and Ali offered me some helpful tips to whip up quick and simple, healthy dinners which didn't leave me feeling like I was missing out on all my favourites.

"I substituted regular potatoes for sweet potatoes, spaghetti for 'courgetti' and was even able to enjoy homemade burgers with iceberg lettuce instead of a bun.

"In the daytime, Ali and her staff mixed up yummy juices and smoothies for my breakfasts and lunches.

"The prospect of no solid food throughout the day was a little daunting at first, but the Dottie Kitchen menu offers a variety of drinks to suit all tastes, all absolutely packed with healthy fruit and vegetables and some surprisingly filling.

"After just a few days I started noticing the difference on my waistline, and others soon did too, which encouraged me to keep going.

"In just under two weeks I had lost a total of seven pounds, had improved digestion and clearer skin.

"The results have instantly given me a confidence boost and, as I now continue on my own healthy eating plan, I know I can really do it!"

As well as their popular juices and smoothies Dottie Kitchen now offers a food menu featuring generously-sized falafel and sweet potato falafel wraps or salad boxes, as well as daily changing specials.

Colourfence presents….

THE MAINTENANCE FREE GARDEN FENCE

AT LAST! The holy grail of fencing transforming gardens across the UK!

It may do "exactly what it says on the tin" but let's face it, treating a timber fence can never be called fun! In fact, owning a timber fence isn't much fun either with costly, time consuming maintenance and repairs almost every year.

Finally, the alternative to timber fencing…. our fence goes up and stays up, resisting wind gusts of up to 130mph!

Colourfence fencing solutions are made from innovative Colorbond steel, virtually maintenance free with an occasional wash down with water to keep it looking as good as new – so you never need to pick up that paintbrush again!, Guaranteed not to rot, warp, chip or peel for 25 years.

Available in a variety of heights and colours with or without trellis, our skilled installation team will make short work of transforming your garden.

The best news is the pricing is just as attractive, starting costs are in line with comparable traditional systems but offer the ongoing peace of mind you're your investment will continue to save time and money year after year.

For those of us who want a maintenance free garden, Colourfence promises a lifetime of hassle-free enjoyment.

6 Simple facts that make colourfence 'TICK' all the boxes…

- Guaranteed not to rot, warp, chip or peel for 25 years* (T&C's apply)
- Fit & forget – 'no worry' maintenance free fence
- Strong, yet lightweight – can withstand wind gusts of upto 130mph
- No painting, treatment or repairs!
- Ensures good neighbourly relations, both sides the same!
- Beautiful to look at year after year

The Fence that repairs itself.

If you scratch or cut Colourfence, the ingenious zinc element in the Zincalume steel reacts with moisture to form a protective barrier to prevent any corrosion with no action needed from you .

Wise Owl Toys

Wise Owl Toys Celebrate twenty one years in business

When Lesley James opened the Formative Fun Toy Shop in 1994 at 4 Hardye Arcade, little did she realise that 21 years later the shop would be a much larger family enterprise. The shop now occupies three times as much selling space, and also sells via Amazon Market Place and its own website.

The shop expanded into no 5 Hardye Arcade in 1999 and later changed its name to Wise Owl Toys. It continues to sell different, inspiring and fun toys with an educational bias. Lesley has been joined by her husband, David, and son, Rob. The team would not be complete without Sally and her daughters, Carina and Shona. Between them they have built up a vast knowledge and experience selling educational toys so you can be sure all their toys are carefully selected to have the right educational impact, giving your child a safe & fun learning experience.

Over the years they have expanded their range and now stock possibly the largest display of Playmobil in Dorset. The same could also be said for their display of the Sylvanian Families, Schleich and Papo ranges.

This year they have added the well known brands of Little Tikes, Baby Annabell & V-Tech to the shop to give an even greater shopping experience

They also stock a large selection of craft, outdoor and science based toys and games. They enjoy repeat visits from many teachers and playgroups, as well as parents and grandparents. Many of their traditional toys and games are as popular now as when the shop first opened.

Lesley, David, Rob & Sally look forward to welcoming both new, past and present customers to their wonderful shop during the summer holidays.

Susan Gale Hynotherapy

Life is for Living

LIFE is for living, but sometimes things get in the way. And feeling helpless to change makes everything much worse.

The trouble is that our conscious, thinking mind is really only the tip of the iceberg. Most of the power is below the surface, on a subconscious level, which can make it impossible for you to make changes by yourself.

But there is a way to break free of the trap and enjoy life more.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, can use hypnotherapy and her years of experience to help you. She has a very down to earth approach and always tailors the therapy to the person. You just need to want to change and then Susan can help you get out of the rut and change for the better.

Hypnotherapy can help with so many problems. To clear tensions and anxieties. To help you deal with things differently. To restore confidence and well-being. And much, much more.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and has helped many people. Take a look at her website www.beltain.co.uk or phone 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

Favourite Shops and Businesses in town

HAVE you ever wanted to shout about your favourite shop/business in town?

The Dorchester BID is running a competition to help give recognition to the businesses that you most enjoy visiting in Dorchester. Most people recognise the importance of having a healthy high street on their doorstep and in a world of on-line purchasing, what still draws people to visit a town centre?

One of the obvious things is the whole 'shopping experience' another is the invaluable experience and insight that some businesses can offer a customer perhaps helping to avoid making a bad purchase or discovering a totally different solution which works better for them. One of the other key factors often mentioned in surveys about the on-line vs. High street shopping is the importance of 'what happens next?' or after sales service and support.

Whatever the factors are for you when shopping, Dorchester has a proliferation of specialist, independent businesses mixed with both traditional and new high street brands - Perhaps it's time to celebrate the outstanding examples, raise the bar a little and even help some who might need to improve their customer experience?

Wanting to encourage as many votes as possible, the DBID have put together a rather nice prize package for two for the lucky winners which includes a fine dine evening meal, a night in a top Dorchester hotel with breakfast, mid-morning coffees, a fabulous lunch and afternoon cream teas. To give some insight into the town and its colourful history a brief guided walk from our award winning town crier and local historian Alistair Chisholm will set the scene. Finally, a golden ticket for two giving unlimited entry to all 7 museums and exhibitions in town should keep the winners entertained over their two days in town.

Phil Gordon Dorchester BID comments "In Dorchester, we want to give you the best experience we can when you visit us. Whether you are a regular shopper or a 'first time' visitor your opinion matters a lot and so we would like to give you the chance to vote for your favourite shop/business. This might be where you had the best shopping/service experience or perhaps they went above and beyond the call of duty!"

How to enter: All we need are you nominations for 1st,2nd & 3rd plus any extra comments you would like to make and your full contact details. Scoring: We will allocate 3 points for 1st, 2 points for 2nd and 1 point for your 3rd choice. A winner will be drawn (from entrants who correctly selected the business with the most votes) at the DBID AGM in September and published in the media at the end of September.

Entries: on-line via the competitions page (under 'what's on') at www.dorchesterdorset.com or emailed to info@dorchesterdorset.co.uk or posted to DBID office, 2nd Floor 49 High West Street Dorchester DT1 1UT or. Entries close 10th September 2015.

Dorchester Super Sleuth Photo Competition starts 18th July

LAST summer the Dorchester BID (in association with the Town Council) ran the highly successful 'Sporting Country Flags' competition. The feedback from the shops, mums and dads, grandparents and of course, the kids was so positive that we had to have another one this summer!

This year's competition.....Are you a super sleuth? We are looking to the children of the Dorchester area (and our visitors of course) to prove how good their detection and observational skills are when it comes to finding secret locations of shops and businesses around town. There are two age groups this year 10yrs and under, 11yrs and over (max 16yrs). Both age groups will have 1st second and third prizes of £70, £40 & £20 in the form of vouchers to spend, where possible in a shop in Dorchester of their choice (some shops last year added extra to the prize too!)

The children entering will be on a detective mission: All participating shops will have no visible clue from the outside that they are in the competition, but they will have a close up photograph taken of either an iconic part of their building, part of a logo or some other good visual clue as to where the photo was taken. Some shots might be close-up photography; others might be a clue by the kind of products sold. Some will be easy some much harder, so it should test the detective in all those entering!

Once a shop/business has been identified by the photo, the young super sleuth needs to go into the business and (hopefully) polity ask for a sticker for their collection. If you are a parent please go in with them if you can. This sticker will be a miniature version of the photo to add to their collection. The winners in each age group will be drawn out of a hat but if no one has a full set then it will be the ones with the most correct answers.

Our spies are everywhere! Like last year, budding super sleuths will be able to tweet/facebook their own clues to friends if they want or ask our secret agent, @Dorchdude on twitter or via our facebook page (Dorchester Thomas Hardy Country) for cryptic clues to help find some of the harder ones. 'Like/Follow' these accounts to get the latest on the competition, clues and other useful information.

How to enter: It's simple, just go to either the TIC (Tourist Information Centre) in Antelope walk or the Town Council office in North Square to get your free Mission Report (available from Sat 18th July) and then you will be ready to start solving the photo clues and locations.

The full set of Photo clues to be hunted down will be available as a download from our website (www.dorchester-dorset.com) from the 18th July and for those with no computer access they will be available from the TIC and the Town Council office in North Square.

Project director Phil Gordon comments "This was huge fun last year and so many shops reported how they enjoyed talking to the super sleuths who became more confident as time went on! I can't wait to get started again- great fun on a rainy day when its sometimes hard to find things to do with the kids, but in the better weather too it should encourage more families to explore parts of the town that they are less familiar with and maybe discover one or two hidden gems of shops tucked away down side streets".

Most successful Stoke Abbott street fair so far

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedia.co.uk

MORE than 800 people flocked to Stoke Abbott last Saturday to make this year the village's most successful fair so far.

Locals and tourists filled the lanes of Stoke Abbott to browse stalls of gifts, bric-a-brac, clothing and books, enjoy a cream tea in the village hall, and play games to help raise more money for local causes than ever before.

The Rex Trevett Band, local musician Mitch Norman and the Wylde Morris dancers entertained the crowds throughout the day with skittles, coconut shy, the dog show and a children's games garden proving a big hit.

The fair was officially opened by the Sick Club parade with locals and visitors walking through the village to the well, which was later blessed by the Reverend Jo Neary after judging the children's fancy dress competition.

Catherine Leech, coordinator of Stoke Abbott Street Fair, said: "This year's fair was an amazing team effort from virtually the entire village from our bunting-making evenings last winter to the last of the clearing up on Sunday.

"It just goes to show what you can achieve when everyone pulls together.

"This is our main fundraising event each year and it looks as if we will break the record with funds going to the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance as well as our own village hall and St Mary's Church.

"A special mention for Vic and Celia Rus who have grown and sold the plants and flowers for the village plant stall for the last 15 years.

"This is their last year doing it – their hard work and green fingers have made a huge contribution and are very much appreciated."

Next year's fair will take place on Saturday July 16th.

Thanks, we had a ball!

YEAR Six pupils took a look back at their time at Symondsbury Primary School at a special leavers ball joined by family and teachers on Saturday July 11th.

The leavers arrived at the school in the most creative and eco-friendly modes of transport they could think of - with prizes for the best one - ranging from decorated scooters, roller blades, a horse and carriage and an environmentally friendly moped.

While they had all been encouraged to put on their "glad-rags" the focus was on not spending much money and using charity shop finds or hand-me-downs to put together a special outfit for the evening.

Each family brought food to share to create a celebration meal and there was a look back through the years with photographs of the class, going back to when they joined the school as five-year-olds.

Pupils also received a special award to celebrate their own unique contribution to the school and an individual and family photograph.

Head teacher Emma Roberts said: "The evening saw tears and laughter as the families came together in real Symondsbury style, with a wonderful sense of the journey that the children had been on together over the years.

"We are so proud of our Year Six pupils and wish them every success and happiness as they move on to their new schools in September."

Struggling with getting online?

Feel like the digital world is passing you by?

POST OFFICE®

BRIDPORT POST OFFICE have invited a Skills & Learning digital champion from Superfast Dorset to come in and run three free sessions in our office to help people find out about computers and how to get online. They are going to facilitate these sessions on Wednesday morning 29th July between 9.00 am and 11.30 am.

We would like to help our community access all the products Bridport Post Office has on offer. We are noticing more and more of the organisations we are intermediaries for want their customers to do things on line. The DVLA and NSI to name but two. We find that at least 30% of our customers are not and/or do not want to be online. Or if they are, they are not comfortable with downloading forms or submitting online applications.

So if you feel like a free session to show you how it is possible to navigate the wonders of the digital world would help you just come along in or give us a call on 01308 422667. The sessions will be on a first come first served basis. All ages and abilities welcome.

SUMMER FUN: St Catherine's Primary School pupils enjoy the annual summer barbecue.

Barbecue fun at St Catherine's

PARENTS, pupils and staff of St Catherine's Primary School in Bridport came together to enjoy a summer evening at the school's annual summer barbecue earlier this month.

Families enjoyed a range of games, including coconut shy, welly wanging, beat the goalie and tombolas. while children also had the opportunity to try circus skills from stilt walking to plate spinning.

A beach bar was set up for the children where they could enjoy fruity cocktails while adults could relax with a Pimms.

Members of the Parent, Teacher, and Friends Association (PTFA), who organised the event, are hoping to have raised over £1,000 from the barbecue to go towards new school computer equipment.

Caroline Maddock, chair of St Catherine's Primary School PTFA, said: "The summer barbecue was a great family event and is always one of the highlights of the year for the PTFA.

"We are grateful to all the parents and families who helped out or just came along to make it such a fun evening.

"Everyone helped raise a significant amount of money that will go towards our fundraising target for new computer equipment for the school."

A spot of secret supper

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedia.co.uk

A BRIDPORT chef has launched a new venture to change dining experiences for Dorset residents.

Dominic Brown, who works at Soulshine Café on South Street, has come up with the idea of the Bearkat Supper Club which takes a different approach to eating out by hosting nights in secret locations with carefully designed menus, live music and guest mixologists.

The first of the secret dinner events will take place this Saturday (July 25th) and those wanting to attend will not know the location until the day.

Dominic Brown said: "I believe food should be fun as well as tasting amazing so I started these nights to add a bit of theatre to the dining experience.

"These kind of nights happen in London but there is nothing like it in Dorset and I just love cooking.

"The aim is for everyone to have a good night and go away wanting more.

"I will be using all local suppliers for my food and there will be live music, a cocktail bar and a few other surprises."

People are asked to book by emailing bearkatsupper@outlook.com or by visiting www.bearkat.co.uk.

On the day, guests will receive a text and email giving the venue details of the dining experience and how to find the location - they are advised to arrive early so as not to miss anything.

Tickets cost £45, which includes a three-course meal, canapés, cocktails and live music.

For more information visit www.bearkat.co.uk

Bridport project awarded thousands of pounds

A BRIDPORT-based voluntary company is celebrating after being awarded thousands of pounds for its successful project.

Bridport Enterprise Supporting Training Ltd (BEST) received over £15,000 from Skills and Learning Bournemouth, Dorset and Poole (BDP) for its Aspire project, which helps young people into work.

Arthur Woodgate, voluntary co-director of BEST, said: "Aspire has been operating for over five years and for three of those years we have been funded by Skills and Learning.

"The fact is you are more likely to get the funding if you deliver the results and, thanks to our rather excellent co-ordinator Charlotte Storey, we deliver and we deliver well.

"It is the practical support that can give that extra boost to someone trying to turn their lives around.

"This has taken the form of us funding further training, often vocational, helping with transport costs, buying clothes for an interview, work-related equipment and so on."

Co-ordinator Charlotte Storey was recently recognised by the National Institute of Adult Continuing Education for her work with Aspire, a project previously nominated by Oliver Letwin MP for a Centre of Social Justice award – which recognises poverty fighting groups across the UK – because of its support for the unemployed and those seeking to increase their employability skills.

Mr Woodgate emphasised the importance of working with partner agencies for the project's success.

"We don't have, and don't need a centre of our own," he added.

"The organisations we work with refer learners to us, appreciate the quality of work provided and the often very positive results of that work, and so they let us use their centres free of charge."

The Aspire project, which is part of Skills and Learning BDP's Community Learning Programme, also offers a free 'Preparation for Work' programme, which can be held locally and is often able to provide practical support to learners.

For more information about BEST and Aspire contact Arthur Woodgate at a.c.woodgate@btinternet.com

X31: can't it wait?

I AM writing about the X31 bus service as I have family and friends who use the train service from London Waterloo to Weymouth and alight at Dorchester South. They use the bus to travel on to Bridport when they visit me.

My family have told me that they see the bus leaving the stand just as the train arrives and they are not able to use it. This results in my having to drive to and from Dorchester to collect them as the taxi service is very expensive.

Would it not be possible for the bus to wait for the train and give time for people to cross the bridge to the bus stand?

There must be many people who wish to use the X31 after their journey.

New hospital trust role

THROUGH the letters column of your paper, I would like to express my thanks and appreciation to the residents of West Dorset who supported my in my appointment as a public governor of Dorset County Hospital NHS Foundation Trust.

I have no preconceived ideas to bring to my appointment, however, I will continue in the same vein as I did as both a town and district councillor i.e. looking after the interests of West Dorset as best as possible.

DAVID TETT, West Allington, Bridport

Fete supporters

THANK you to all who sponsored and supported the Bradpole Village Fete, opened by Wessex FM on Saturday 30th May.

On a fine afternoon, about 600 people enjoyed the festivities in Norman's orchard and a huge number visited Holy Trinity church for a cream tea.

From the Grand Draw, 28 prizes worth over £700 were won, and a profit of over £2,800 was made from stalls, games and teas.

Those who have now received the proceeds include Holy Trinity Church, St. James Park nursing home, Bradpole pre-school, Bradpole village hall, Bradpole luncheon club, and West Dorset Mencap.

An amount has been held in reserve for future village events.

Lyme Folk Weekend

HOW THE WEST WAS SUNG

JIM CAUSLEY and Friends will host a unique West-fest for Lyme Folk's finale on Sunday, August 23rd with How the West was Sung, a music-packed evening of song and banter, from local artists celebrating our beloved West Country, supported by Six Days, the Lyme-based brother and sister duo making big waves on the folk circuit

Ninebarrow

Treading the boards with Jim, our patron and award-winning singer-songwriter, will be Nick Wyke and Becki Driscoll, a fiddling duo from North Devon and Bridport; Thorn and Roses, an acapello trio from Cornwall; Maggie Duffy and Mike Weed, singer/songsmith from Brixham and accompanist, and the award-winning boys from East Dorset, Ninebarrow.

How The West Was Sung celebrates the diversity of the West Country, from the rugged upland Moors of its interior to the gentle seas around Lyme Bay. With songs of murder most foul in Chagford, happenings in an alleyway in Port Isaac or a Honiton lace-makers lament, the music documents the legends, work and people of the West, whether on land or sea. Using both traditional and newly written songs, the evening "showcases our great home-grown talent" says Jim Causley, "sharing the region's strong oral traditions of funny, sad and illuminating musical stories to bring our wonderful West to life on stage".

Julie Sheppard, the festival's publicist said:"This is a musical extravaganza – it's like another mini-festival, with nine individual artists, all sharing a stage at the same time, singing and playing in the round about the characters and landscapes they come from and care about. It'll be fun, moving and hugely entertaining. And what's the odds on a rousing song celebrating cider at some point in the evening?"

This year's folk festival, now in its third summer, has a full programme of singing, dancing and music–making at Marine Theatre and other venues around the town.

How the West Was Sung, Sunday 23 August, Marine Theatre, Doors open 7pm.

Tickets: £12 (seated), under 16s: £7 from www.lymefolk.com or via 01297 442138 or visit Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis.

More information on www.lymefolk.com and www.facebook.com/lymefolk.

Laurence Jones

PRODIGIOUS BLUES GUITARIST TO PLAY BRIDPORT ARTS CENTRE

INFLUENCED by the likes of Walter Trout, Eric Clapton, Gary Moore and Rory Gallagher, Laurence Jones is an exciting young blues guitarist, hotly tipped for stardom.

At only 22 years old, Laurence is already making a big name for himself in blues circles, including being named 'Young Artist of the Year' at the 2014 British Blues Awards.

Laurence released his third album - and second with the Ruf Record's label - 'What's It Gonna Be' in April of this year to critical acclaim.

Laurence Jones, with special guests Red Butler, plays at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, September 18th. Tickets are available from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling the box office on 01308 424204.

Little Howard's Big Show for Kids at the Marine Theatre

THE See-Play-Do programme at the Marine boasts the best in family theatre from across the country for young people of all ages and their families. This summer holiday season we're excited to welcome Little Howard's Big Show for Kids to the Marine Theatre on Tuesday 28th July.

It's a unique interactive animated family comedy show from the award winning creator of CBBC's 'Little Howard's Big Question'.

Life is tough in showbiz, Little Howard's new act keeps going wrong, and his comedy counterpart Big Howard has been diagnosed with being clinically 'unfunny'. When a government inspector comes to town, Big Howard and Little Howard have to put on the show of their lives to avoid going to prison for a hundred years….

With mind-blowing live animation that makes Little Howard seem real, interactive stand-up, and lots of jokes and songs, this really is a show that all the family can enjoy.

The show takes place at the Marine Theatre on Wednesday, July 28th at 2pm. All tickets are £5, and the show is suitable for ages 6+. For more details or to book call 01297 442138 or visit the website at www.marinetheatre.com

SUMMER SINGING PROJECT

A special invitation for keen young singers

SIGN UP NOW to take part in a creative summer holiday singing project, to compose and perform a specially written piece of work for the very prestigious community event, Candles on the Cobb.

The Premiere candlelit concert is in St Michael's church, Lyme Regis on Saturday, August 29th and at the lighting of the Candles on the Cobb on Sunday 30th.

Singers will be working with John K Miles, one of of the country's most inspiring composers, along with a fantastic team including:

B Sharp trainee music leaders, professional guest musicians (Bournemouth Symphony strings players Kate Turnbull - violin & Roberto Sorrentino - cello), Winston Clifford (drums), Dave Manington (double bass), and Deborah Jordan (vocal coach).

Rehearsals take place on Tuesday, August 25th to Friday 28th (ages 11 – 25 years), Friday, August 28th (primary school years 5 & 6), and Saturday, August 29th (all) from 10 am - 4 pm The Hub, Church Street, Lyme Regis.

Concerts take place on Saturday, August 29th at 7pm with the Premiere candlelit performance at St Michael's Church, Church Street, Lyme Regis. Advance tickets (£5 adults, £2 under 16 and concession) from Lyme Regis Tourist Information tel: 01297 442138 (tickets to help B Sharp costs)

The Candles on the Cobb performance take place on Sunday, August 30th at 8pm, while the candles are being lit. (Collection for Candles On the Cobb).

Book now! To book a place to sing, call/text Fran Williams on 07968 177663 or email franwilliams@bsharp.uk.com. For more information, please visit the website bsharp.uk.com.

Cost: Tues – Sun (£60). Fri – Sun (£15). Concessions available thanks to 'Youth Music and using public funding by the National Lottery through Arts Council England.' B Sharp does not want to ever exclude anyone on the grounds of hardship.

This project is in partnership with and inspired by Candles On The Cobb – all donations raised on the Sunday will go towards COTC who are supporting local youth charities and 'Make a Wish'.

New Cocktail and Pizza Night in West Bay

ELLIPSE is West Bay's Bistro and Bar, which boasts stunning views of the Bay.

It's prime location makes it easy to see why ITV's hit drama Broadchurch was filmed there. Ellipse sits right next to the famous Broadchurch Police station, and the panoramic views from the restaurant provide a backdrop for diners of the famous cliffs on either side where many of the memorable scenes were filmed.

Ellipse is now proud to be West Dorset's new place to go for a great cocktail! Two new talented mixologists have joined the team and have created a fantastic cocktail menu, which can be enjoyed every Friday and Saturday night along with a freshly made pizza.

The cocktail menu has classics such as the Margarita, Moscow Mule, Pina Colada and Espresso Martini. Cocktail lovers can also try something a little different like a Chocolate Vodka Martini, consisting of Vodka, Ellipse Chocolate, Cacao White Bols and Vanilla Syrup, or even a Chocolate Cookie Monster, with Tequilla, Bols Clue, Cocao White Bols and cream. There's also alcohol free cocktails such as a Shirley Temple, which is made up of Grenadine and Ginger Beer. If there's a particular cocktail you like that's not on the menu, just let one of the mixologists know and if they've got the ingrediens they will fix it for you!

However, it's not all about the cocktails, the pizza's also give Ellipse something to shout about. Everything is made fresh, in house, from good quality local ingredients. The salads are all fresh 'Dorset Leaf', absolutely nothing is reheated from frozen, not even the sauces. It's all made to order, even the pizza dough. It really does make a big difference that you can taste!

If you prefer a glass of wine or two with your pizza, the wine list now includes many more wines available by the glass and baby bottles of prosecco so you don't have to splash out on a full bottle to enjoy a glass of fizz!

Through the rest of the week, Ellipse is open from 9am-6pm. Come and enjoy the glorious views over a cup of coffee or one of their famous hot chocolates (what could be better on a miserable British summers day?!) and a slice of home-made cake. You have to be quick though; the home-made cakes are so popular they are quite often sold out by the time the afternoon arrives!

Ellipse have a full off-licence and you can now take away any of the drinks on sale. Choose a refreshing draught beer, lager or cider, with Amstel, Birra Moretti, Kronenbourg, Thatchers Gold and St Austell Brewery's Trelawny all on tap.

Did you know that you can hire Ellipse for your private function? The restaurant is a great place for your party, whatever the occasion. Ask to speak to Jaki for any more information.

Pop in and have a look for yourselves and sample the wonderful atmosphere, food, and drinks that Ellipse has to offer, while taking in the breathtaking surroundings.

Ellipse is open 9am-6pm Sunday to Thursday and 9am-11pm Friday and Saturday.

The Christians and Andrew Roachford double bill

THE CHRISTIANS and Andrew Roachford join together for a double headline 11-date tour of the UK and they're heading for Bridport's Electric Palace on Saturday, October 3rd.

Each will be fronting a 70-minute set with full band, playing the hits that took them to the top of their game in the late 80s and early 90s. And they're in finer voice than ever.

Formed in Liverpool in 1986, The Christians went on to become one of the UK's biggest soul bands with hits like Ideal World and Harvest for the World. A unique blend of soul, gospel and heartfelt acoustic pop, topped off by Garry Christian's distinctive vocals.

Andrew Roachford continues to grow and mature into a superb artist. His sound may have changed from the soul/rock fusion of debut hits Cuddly Toy and Family Man to more contemporary soul and RnB, but the quality has remained as consistently high as ever.

Tickets costs £25 in advance or £28 on the door.

Roll up, Roll up for Dr Longitude's Marvellous Adventure on Bridport's Millennium Green

ROLL UP, ROLL UP! The most magnifical, tremendible and fantasticulous family theatre experience, Dr Longitude's Marvellous Adventure, is coming to Bridport's Millennium Green.

Ever wanted to count a Decapus's, legs? Or wondered what a Whistling Pank eats? Would you like to catch a glimpse of the fabled 'Massive Paw', or lick a Tresillian Toad? Or perhaps see a cow that looks like Brian May? Then you've come to the right place! Dr Longitude and his team of "experts" are here to guide you through a puppet-packed, lyrical and magically musical tour of an Imaginary Menagerie.

From the acclaimed, award winning creators of TheTerrible Infants, Alice's Adventures Underground and The Trench, Les Enfants Terribles tour the show for the third consecutive year in conjunction with House.

Written by Anthony Spargo and Oliver Lansley a published playwright who also works extensively itelevision co-creating/writing ITV2's 'FM' and numerous other projects including 'WHITES' which was shown on BBC2 and starred Alan Davies. He wasnamed a 'Broadcast Hotshot's' by Broadcast magazine and won the 'Multi-talented' award at Channel 4's 4-Talent Awards.

Bridport Arts Centre Director, Laura Cockett said "The hugely talented Les Enfants Terribles are bring an engrossing and charming production to the Millennium. It promises to be a real treat for the whole family"

The performance take place on Tuesday, August 4th at 1pm and 3pm. Tickets £8/£6 Concessions or £25 2x Adult and 2 x Children from 01308 424204 or www.bridport-arts.com.

Bridport Youth Dance

THERE will be lots of creative fun this Summer for children aged between 3 and 11 years based around the theme of Animal Magic.

Small Things creative arts workshops will be happening the first week of August and offering some fun art activities to keep children busy.

From Monday, August 3rd to Friday 7th Small Things will take place at Bridport Arts Centre and The Community Orchard.

Workshops will include African drumming and stories with Noah Messomo, kids yoga, making and stories with community artist Kathy Kelly and making with artist Darrell Wakelam. There is also a performance of Dr. Longitude's Marvellous Imaginary Menagerie on the Tuesday at 1pm and 3pm on The Millennium Green and a chance to work with award winning performer and director Niki McCretton in A Play In A Day.

You can pick up a Small Things programme from Bridport Arts Centre, the Tourist Information Centre, South Street and various venues in town.

Booking takes place at Bridport Arts Centre in person. Telephone : BAC box office on 01308 424204

Small Things is supported by West Dorset District Council, Bridport Town Council, Bridport Arts Centre and the Rex Trevett Appeal Fund and is co-ordinated by local dance teacher and creative producer Nikki Northover in partnership with BAC. Small Things workshops are run by the Summerthing team.

SEMI-DETACHED HOUSE, IN PEACEFUL VILLAGE OF MOSTERTON - £185,000

NUMBER 10 Manor Vale is a well presented semi-detached house situated in a popular cul de sac. The accommodation is in good decorative order throughout and benefits from double-glazed windows and recently installed electric heaters, sitting room, good sized kitchen, spacious conservatory, two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a family shower room. Outside to the rear of the property is an enclosed low maintenance garden, driveway and single garage. Offered with no onward chain, an early viewing is highly recommended by the selling agent.

Mosterton is one of the few remaining villages to still have its facilities, which include a village shop, primary school, pre school, play area, village hall, parish church and public house. The village has an attractive community with regular events in the village hall. There are bus routes to the neighbouring towns and bus services to the primary school and secondary school in Beaminster, which is the nearest town.

Beaminster offers many facilities including a good range of shops, churches, post office (with banking facilities), library, three schools (pre, primary and secondary), health centres, dentist, other professional services, and many social and sporting activities/groups. Mainline rail services to London (Waterloo) are available from Crewkerne and Dorchester.

Accommodation consists of: Entrance Lobby, Sitting Room, Kitchen, and Timber Conservatory. First Floor: Staircase and Landing, Two double Bedrooms and Shower Room (previously a Bathroom) Outside: Enclosed rear Garden with fenced borders, and mainly laid to gravel with paved seating area and pathways. Flower bed housing a variety of mature shrubs and trees, and pathway leading to a single garage with power and light, eve's storage, up and over door.

The New Bmw 320d Ed Sport

BMW is now offering a sportier look and design to the popular EfficientDynamic models of the 3 Series. Based on the recently introduced ED Plus model, the ED Sport adds the sporting design characteristics of Sport trim, to the class-leading efficiency of the 320d ED engine. Powered by the new 2.0-litre engine and available in either a six-speed manual or the class leading eight-speed automatic, the new model teams effortless performance with better than ever emissions and fuel consumption.

Thanks to an extensive suite of EfficientDynamics technologies, the new BMW 320d ED Sport emits just 104g/km of CO2 (manual: 108g/km) , and has a combined fuel consumption of 70.6mpg, making it the cleanest and most fuel-efficient sports model in the 3 Series range. The improved technologies include Active Air Flaps integrated into the kidney grill and a lowered suspension set-up, both working to improve aerodynamics and overall performance and efficiency. This allows the 320d ED Sport Saloon to occupy a VED Band B and the Touring model to occupy the VED Band C with a Benefit in Kind (BIK) taxation rate of only 19 and 20 per cent respectively (Automatic: 19 and 20 per cent). This impressive fuel economy doesn't impact on performance with the 2.0-litre diesel engine developing 163hp and an acceleration from zero to 62mph in 7.8 seconds on its way to a top speed of 143mph.

Owners of the 320d ED Sport can also benefit from a low cost of ownership thanks to the £350 increase in residual value of the vehicle over the ED Plus. This allows customers to have the additional sporting styling and enhanced specification of the ED Sport for just £3 more than the cost of the ED Plus model.

With an OTR price of £30,205, the 320 ED Sport comes with more standard equipment and an even greater scope for personalisation. With 17-inch light-alloy wheels as standard, as well as Business Navigation, a selection of Dakota leather upholsteries, Sports steering wheel, unique trim finishers and Heated Sports Front Seats - The ED Sport provides an additional £840 of standard equipment for only £500 more than the ED Plus model. There are a wide variety of options available including a range of 18-inch or 19-inch wheels as well as the extensive range of technologies available to the rest of the 3 Series range.

Ford developing advanced headlights that point out people, animals in the dark, and widen beams at tricky junctions

DRIVING at night, particularly on unlit roads, can be a nerve-wracking experience. Ford is developing new lighting technologies that will enable drivers to more easily identify potential hazards, including pedestrians, cyclists and animals.

Ford's Camera-Based Advanced Front Lighting System can widen the beam at junctions and roundabouts to better illuminate hazards that are not in the direction of travel. New Spot Lighting technology helps draw the driver's attention to pedestrians, cyclists and even large animals in the vehicle's path or even just off the road.

"Many people who drive at night have had to quickly react to someone or something suddenly appearing in the road – as if from nowhere. Ford's Camera-Based Advanced Front Lighting System and Spot Lighting help ensure the driver is quickly alerted to people or animals that could present a danger," said Ken Washington, vice president, Ford Research and Advanced Engineering.

Camera-Based Advanced Front Lighting System builds upon Ford's Adaptive Front Lighting System and Traffic Sign Recognition, which are already available in Ford vehicles, to provide drivers with improved visibility at roundabouts, stop, and give way or yield signs.

The system also uses GPS information to better illuminate bends and dips on a chosen route. Where GPS information is not available the technology uses a forward-facing video camera mounted in the rear-view mirror base to detect lane markings and predict the road's curvature, using the information to illuminate the area more effectively.

In a further evolutionary step, in those instances, the camera stores the information in the navigation system. When next the driver uses the same road again, the headlights adapt to the course of the road automatically to better light the way.

Camera-Based Advanced Front Lighting System was developed at Ford's European Research and Innovation Centre in Aachen, Germany, and Ford expects the technology to be available for customers in the near term.

Spot Lighting – currently in the pre-development phase with Ford engineers in Aachen – uses an infra-red camera in the front grille to simultaneously locate and track up to eight people and bigger animals, including larger dogs, at a range of up to 120 metres.

The system can spotlight two hazards for the driver with a spot and a stripe on the road surface, illuminated by two special LED lamps next to the fog lights. The highlighted objects are displayed on the screen inside the car, marked in a red or yellow frame, according to the proximity of the object and the level of danger presented.

"Camera-Based Advanced Front Lighting can help make it easier for the driver to travel at night in unfamiliar surroundings, and to more easily see unexpected hazards. At roundabouts, for example, our system helps the driver to clearly see the exits – and check if cyclists and pedestrians are crossing the road," said Michael Koherr, research engineer, Lighting Systems, Ford of Europe. "Spot Lighting makes potential hazards in the road ahead more easily visible to the driver – whether that is a pedestrian, a cyclist, or even a large animal."

Road safety reports show that on unlit roads there is a significantly increased likelihood of accidents, and that such accidents could involve personal injuries, or fatalities.* Ford is a leading innovator in lighting technology.

All-new Volvo XC90 T8 Twin Engine receives approval for plug-in car grant

VOLVO'S first ever petrol plug-in hybrid, the XC90 T8 Twin Engine, has qualified for the UK Plug-in Car Grant (PICG) scheme from the Office of Low Emissions (OLEV). The new XC90 T8 Twin engine is now available with an on-road price of £54,955 (including PICG).

The award-winning XC90 is the first car to be built on Volvo's first in-house designed and built platform (SPA – Scalable Product Architecture), powered by Volvo's new Drive-E powertrains.

The SPA platform is designed to incorporate electrification without encroaching on interior space, with the necessary battery pack being neatly concealed within the centre console. The Drive-E powertrain, from its initial concept, was designed to include electrification, with the new XC90 utilising both a 320hp petrol engine and 87hp electric motor.

With a combined output of 407hp, this 7-seat SUV emits an impressively low figure of just 49g/km of CO2, at the same time being able to go from stand still to 60mph in only 5.3 seconds.

The Plug in Car Grant (PICG) has a designed criteria to encourage manufactures to decrease the level of outputted CO2 exhaust emissions. To achieve this, hybrid vehicles must emit less than 75g/km, a minimal travelling range of 10 miles and must reach a speed of at least 60mph.

Companies choosing the XC90 T8 Twin Engine can benefit by writing down as much as 100% of the cost against their income tax liability. Driver who choose the XC90 T8 Momentum pay as little as £99.83 BIK a month (40% tax payer) whilst enjoying a full 7-seat SUV with 407hp.

The XC90 T8 is available in three designs: Momentum, R-Design and Inscription.

Subaru 'hounds' the alarm on in-car dog safety

SUBARU UK, the AA and Dogs Trust are calling on all animal lovers to consider their pets' wellbeing if travelling with them in the car over the summer, in particular to ensure their safety when in transit and also ensuring dogs are not left unattended in hot cars.

In the coming weeks and months, thousands of families across the UK are likely to drive to their holiday destination, in the UK or on the continent, with the family dog as a passenger, potentially posing dangers both to human and animal occupants.

Pet safety in a collision

Subaru is encouraging all owners to place their pets' safety first when on the move to mitigate any potential harm in the event of a collision. If dogs are to travel in the main cabin of the vehicle they should be strapped in via a dedicated harness, however often the safest solution is for them to travel in the boot inside their own crate or behind an approved dog guard.

The AA in particular warns of pet passengers becoming 'canine cannonballs' – unrestrained dogs that are thrown forward in the event of a crash.

Max Holdstock, AA Patrol of the Year, says: "Any loose object in the car can become a dangerous projectile in a crash, whether it's a first-aid kit, golf umbrella or even a pet. Unrestrained in a sudden impact of emergency stop, dogs can become 'canine cannonballs' with potentially fatal consequences for both the animal and other passengers – for example, at 30 mph a 32-kilo Labrador or German Shepherd is thrown forward with the force equivalent to being hit by a baby elephant weighing 100 kilos.

"Just as you wouldn't drive without a seatbelt, don't forget suitable pet restraints for your four-legged passengers."

The call from Subaru UK comes at a time when Subaru US has just announced its collaboration with the Centre for Pet Safety in North America. Subaru US is funding important crash test research being carried out by the Centre, which carries out collision-testing on a range of products designed to improve the safety of four-legged passengers. The testing will help to establish performance standards for the future development of pet safety accessories.

Don't leave dogs in hot cars

Dogs Trust, the UK's largest dog welfare charity, also warns dog owners of the dangers of leaving their pets in parked cars, even for a few minutes.

Research undertaken by the charity shows that despite being a nation of dog lovers, more than one in four UK dog owners admitted to leaving their dogs unattended in cars. Almost half of us (48%) believe it is okay to leave a dog in a car if countermeasures are taken, such as parking under a tree or leaving a window open.

However research has shown that in reality partially lowering the window has no significant effect on the temperature inside a parked car* and less than 20 minutes in a hot car can prove fatal to a dog should its body temperature exceed 41°C.

As with our US cousins, in the UK Subaru has long been a favoured brand for dog owners. With many of its customers living in more rural locations, the dog is a common companion and the practical and rugged nature of models like the Forester and Outback make ideal cars for pet owners. Subaru UK offers accessories such as bespoke dog guards and boot liners for most models in its vehicle range.

Two-thirds of drivers won't take rest breaks on any long journey, IAM finds

AS MANY as 65 per cent of drivers on long journeys do not to stop to take rest breaks on the motorway because they don't feel they have any need to. While 79 per cent of drivers will only choose to stop and take a rest if a motorway service area is located in a convenient place on their journey.

The findings come from a recent survey conducted by road safety charity the Institute of Advanced Motorists (IAM), in which 1,753 people took part during June 2015.

The poll asked to what extent keeping hydrated and taking a break between long journeys is important to drivers and found many respondents did not consider taking a rest break essential unless they had a pressing reason.

Findings further reveal that while many drivers prepare for a long journey beforehand – filling up their cars with fuel (85 per cent) or programming in a destination into their satnavs (over 60 per cent), only 50 per cent of drivers will plan to make arrangements to stop at a service station, and as little as two per cent fail to do any planning at all.

An existing driving simulator study conducted by Loughborough University showed that even mild dehydration can be hazardous to drivers, suggesting it can have the same effect on someone that is driving while under the influence of drinks and drugs in terms of driver errors made – affecting mood, mental functioning and changes in level of concentration.

The IAM's survey findings suggest that many drivers fail to prioritise their wellbeing and alertness when they are behind the wheel simply because they don't take regular breaks on long journeys.

Other major reasons as to why drivers do not consider taking a motorway break include: deeming the price of fuel at service stations too expensive (56 per cent) or citing that food, drinks and snacks at service stations are considerably overpriced (45 per cent).

For drivers who do have a reason to stop at a motorway service station, over 94 per cent have said they only stop to use the toilet facilities. In fact, over a third of respondents consider a toilet break very important on long distance routes and 75 per cent would welcome more frequent continental style picnic and toilet only rest areas across motorways and main road networks.

Sarah Sillars, IAM's chief executive officer said: "Where drivers avoid taking rest breaks at a motorway service station, simply because they want to reach a destination quicker, raise the risk of making several mistakes and being involved in an incident.

"Although participants have expressed an interest towards self-serving picnic and toilet sites, drivers must be encouraged to take regular breaks every two hours at any type of service station.

"Take a bottle of water with you before embarking on a long journey, keep hydrated throughout and allow for some much-needed rest."

The Sir John Colfox Academy

Records tumble as Toro takes the title

FIVE school records, one that has stood for over 20 years, were broken at The Sir John Colfox Academy Sports Day.

The day, which once again was hugely successful, was an opportunity to showcase the sporting talent whilst celebrating everything good about the House system.

On day one, the participation in the field events was fantastic, and there were some excellent individual performances. Both Eva Bowring (Year 10, 38.32m) and Olivia Willmore (Year 8, 30.92m) broke the school javelin records, and showed why they had been selected to represent Dorset just a few weeks earlier.

Willmore showed what a prodigious talent she is, taking the 300m and 800m records and in doing so equalled the highest number of school records held and she is still only in Year 8! Dane James was just outside the 100m record, but took the Year 10 300m record with ease, whilst Bronwyn Wright (Year 8) had already broken the school 75m hurdles record that had stood for over 20 years.

At the end of the day Toro House had taken a slight lead over the three other houses, and although they fought hard to catch them on the second day, Toro's margin was too great.

Colfox athletes win county titles

FIVE Sir John Colfox Academy athletes – Ryan Smith, Lucie Fry, Honor Slade, along with Bowring and Willmore – were selected to represent Dorset at the South West championships in Exeter last week, with Smith and Fry, who had already been crowned county champions the previous week, taking the regional titles in the discus and hammer.

Bowring and Slade were also crowned county champions, with Willmore, Nathaniel Worleighton, Frankie Chant and Maddy Herbert all finishing runners-up.

Bridport Youth FC

Youth club awards night

THE newly formed Bridport Youth FC Under 6 team celebrated their hugely successful season at the Presentation Night held at Freshwater Holiday Park.

The event was attended by 15 players and their families with trophies and prizes being awarded to all.

Manager, Martin Phillips, would like to thank local organisations: Scrubz, Longs, Elwell Boarding Kennells, Wayne Peck General Builder, AmSafe, Gillinghams, Scott Morris Building Services and Netherbury FC, who kindly supported this event with donations towards the cost of the prizes Manager Phillips said: "It has been an incredible six months for me, and hugely successful for the team.

"So much so, that we will be forming two teams for the coming 2015/16 season; one playing at U7 and the other up a year at U8.

"I am delighted with the progress the boys have made, having played a number of friendlies and participated in multiple tournaments including winning the Fair Play Award at the Melcombe Regis Tournament in Weymouth.

"The pinnacle of the season was at the recent Sturminster Marshall Tournament where three of the players were scouted and invited to a trial at Premier League new boys AFC Bournemouth."

If there is any more interest in joining the team from current Year 1 parents, then please do not hesitate to get in touch with Martin on 07341 828929.

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 242-7 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 238-7 BY 3 WICKETS

DESPITE a magnificent 90 from Steve Gerety and a half century from captain Ed Nichols, Martinstown suffered their third successive defeat that sees them slip into the lower reaches of the table.

However Nichols was still upbeat about his side's performances of late.

"We were missing three of our front line bowlers in Chris Read, Matt Camp and Sam Kershaw and also batter Dave Herbert, but it was a really strong performance from everyone in what was a really enjoyable game of cricket which could have gone either way.

"The difference I think was that they batted right down to at least nine, which they showed to their advantage when we had them still needing 85 with six wickets down.

"Lee House and I took things slowly to start and had put on 90 for the first wicket before Lee went in the over before drinks.

"Tom Adams was solid, but Steve Gerety's innings was superb. He timed everything to perfection and outwitted the field as he picked his shots.

"We bowled and fielded well with James Pickering bowling his ten overs straight through for just 24 runs bowling just two really bad balls in his spell, but we just couldn't get the break through late on."

At 182-2 Martinstown looked in a strong position, but George Bartlett (4-32) broke through and nobody could help Gerety whose 90 came in just 63 balls.

The experienced Colin Randall at the top of the innings gave the hosts a strong base with 58, and David Guest (59) held the Wimborne innings together as Ryan Chase (3-36) chipped away.

In the end it was Joe Weld (37no) and Graham Cole (21no) that saw them home with ten balls to spare.

WEYMOUTH 185 ALL OUT LOST TO DORCHESTER 189-2 BY 8 WICKETS

DORCHESTER did the double over Weymouth in comprehensive style at Redlands on Saturday with captain Simon Mitchem (80 not out) and Dan Belt (66 not out) producing an unbroken third wicket stand of 150 to win with 15 overs in hand.

Belt (2-39) struck with the ball first when Weymouth decided to bat on winning the toos, when he had the experienced Paul Payne (4) caught behind by Nick Roe with five on the board.

However a half century partnership between Jonny Armfield (43) and Dean Janaway (30) redressed the balance, and with Jim Ryall chipping in with 18, at 142-5 it looked like Weymouth would exceed 200.

However the introduction of George Foot (4-26) saw him snare Armfield – stumped by Roe – and despite a defiant unbeaten 44 from captain Kieron Womble, the Seasiders' tail crumbled as they were dismissed for 185 all out.

Weymouth had early success with the wickets of Pete Phillips (12) and Sean Fitzgerald who having held one end to take the score to 39, was given out leg before for a duck despite claims he played the ball onto his pads.

He needn't have worried however as Mitchem (80 from 103 balls) and Belt, 66 at a run-a-ball, didn't make any mistakes in seeing the county town home.

Mitchem said: "I was very pleased. At one stage it looked like they might get 230 or 240, but George Foot in particular bowled very well. He has not been quite there the last couple of games, but he got into a good rhythm and was excellent.

"It was quite a low, flat track which got better as the game progressed, so Dan and I just played sensibly, playing straight and hitting the bad balls.

"That made three wins on the trot which was what we were aiming for. The next three Sherborne, Poole and Wimborne will be tough, but with renewed confidence we will be looking to get something from them."

County Division Two

CATTISTOCK 264-9 BEAT BOURNEMOUTH 3RD 102 ALL OUT BY 162 RUNS

CATTISTOCK had a comfortable win over Bournemouth 3rds although they suffered an attack of the England early collapse syndrome.

Deciding to bat they reached 23 without loss when they lost Jack Walklett (4), Steve Baker for a duck second ball, and Jon Legg (15) to stand 23-3!

Again like England they relied on the middle order to revive them, and two stands of 60 between Billy Walbridge (41); first with Ben Golledge (17) and then Steve Tucker, who top scored with 62, got them to 143-5.

With Liam Toohill (26), Mike White (21) and Bradley Damen (21no) also contributing, along with 52 extras (42 wides), Cattistock amassed 264-9 off their allocation.

Bournemouth also found themselves in similar circumstances when they batted at 32-3, but with Legg 2-13 from nine overs and a remarkable spell from Walklett with 6-24 from nine overs, Bournemouth had no answers and were dismissed for just 102, only Carlos Snell (39) putting up any resistance.

◆ DEVASTATING: Jack Walklett whose 6-24 swept Cattistock to victory in action against Bournemouth 3rds

County Division Three

KINGSTON LACY 260-6 BEAT BEAMINSTER 181 ALL OUT BY 79 RUNS

BEAMINSTER'S recent run of victories came to an end at Kingston Lacy when they were well beaten by a much stronger outfit than had turned out for the earlier game between the two sides.

The visitors in their turn were without the combative all-round services of Ross Baker for the first time this season.

The hosts batted first on a very dry wicket. They signalled their aggressive intent from the very first ball, and although Will Everitt (2-39) soon nipped out both openers with his pace and swing, a strong middle order kept the run rate ticking over without ever quite being able to break loose as the shine came off the ball.

The ground fielding on a very bumpy surface was good, with William Murley and Vijay B in particular making sure that absolutely nothing got past them.

The bowlers stuck gamely to their task, led by the wily Ade Phillips, whose variations in length and loop brought him a tidy return of 1-28 from nine overs, and kept the batsmen on their toes throughout.

A late acceleration saw the total rise to a daunting 260- 6, anchored by a superb 132 from J Holton, the stand-out batsman.

The other wicket takers were Francis Medley (2-41) and Adam Herring (1-69), the latter also clinging on to a tremendous catch at extra cover.

Richie Runyard and Hugh Rathbone got Beaminster's reply off to a decent start, but wickets soon started falling regularly on a pitch that was starting to misbehave alarmingly; some balls rearing up, while others of a similar length shot through at ankle height.

Runyard confidently took the attack to the bowlers, but after he was out for an attractive 45, the batsmen opted instead to knuckle down and try to gain as many bonus points as they could by batting out their full quota of overs.

Brian Earl (13) and Dave Persey (38) joined all-rounders Everitt (11), Medley (12) and Phillips (22) in variously grafting or blasting their way into double figures.

The pick of the knocks was undoubtedly Persey's watchful 38, punctuated by fine shots on both sides of the wicket.

Dave Penman (5no) marshalled the tail well to secure an extra batting point. The scoring rate, however, never got close to the requirement and the innings eventually closed on 181 and defeat by 79 runs.

DORCHESTER 2ND 191-0 BEAT WEYMOUTH 2ND 187 ALL OUT BY 10 WICKETS

DORCHESTER 2nds completed the double over their Weymouth counterparts with this comprehensive ten wicket win.

Weymouth after their recent successes might have hoped for better, but were bowled out for 187, a total Dorchester motored past without loss.

County Division Five

BRADFORD ABBAS 173-7 LOST TO CHARLTON DOWN 249-8 BY 76 RUNS

WITH Puddletown losing for just the second time this season, Charlton Down moved to within one point of them after an emphatic 67 run victory to set up an exciting clash with the league leaders next week.

The victory was set up with a fine batting display at the top of the order by Jae Miller (43) and Nick Voss (37), helped by some early wayward bowling.

However, it was 19-year-old Luke Voss, an emerging talent on the triathlon scene taking a break from training, who produced a classical innings of 66 not out and stole the show.

Classical drives and hard hitting pull shots, complimented with quick running between the wickets were the standout elements.

The Charlton batsmen looked at ease on a difficult wicket and it was Bill Hewisonn (2-37) and Chris Douch (3-42) who combined to stem the runs.

Hewisonn struck twice to first bowl Miller who looked in ominous form with a low yorker, and then had Matt Stevens caught with a leading edge to Douch with the score on 120-3.

Douch then struck three times in five overs, having Nick Voss caught, but the younger Voss continued to show his good form this season with some delightful back foot drives and deft shots through point. Douch then removed Kim Park and Dan Stevens to leave Charlton on 162-6.

A 53 run partnership in only five overs between Javed Gill (29) off 18 balls, and Luke Voss took the game away from Bradford Abbas as both batsmen unleashed some powerful hitting, finding the boundary at regular intervals.

The loss of Gill only allowed Mark Homewood to continue the onslaught, crashing a 34 run partnership with Luke Voss, ending Charlton Down's innings on a very respectable 249-8.

The Bradford Abbas batsmen started positively and Douch and Dan Walters soon had 34 runs on the board until Matt Stevens (1-25) had Walters caught at point by the safe hands of Gill.

◆ WELCOME KNOCK: Luke Voss whose 66 not out steered Charlton Down home

Douch was joined by Rich Steadeford and both looked to continue being positive and at the 20 over mark had set a platform with the score on 92-1.

The change bowlers Park (2-42) and Gill (1-33) struck in consecutive overs to remove the dangerous Douch for 43 and then Tucker caught Steadeford off Gill for 27.

Park then bowled Hewison to leave the hosts 121-4. It was left to Mark Homewood and Rich Fagence to dry up the runs and when Fagence nipped out Chris Wills and Ben Stevens, it quelled the Bradford run chase that finished on 150-7.

Captain Pete Tucker said: "It was great to see another young player like Luke Voss contribute to the win with a very experienced batting display, holding the innings together brilliantly and showing great shot selection. Also the versatile Kim Park produced an excellent spell of spin bowling."

Sunday Division Three

SYMENE 138-7 LOST TO SHILLINGSTONE 143-2 BY 8 WICKETS

DESPITE the eight wicket defeat, this was a game played in the right spirit by both sides.

Batting first, Symene's score was based around a second wicket partnership of 58 between Jon Legg (32) and Phil Hawkins (31) against tight bowling from the opposition.

This put pressure on the rest following their dismissal, but fearless play from youngsters George Wyrill (18) and particularly Tom Hughes, who hit one huge six over long-on in his 21, saw Symene reach 138-7 in their 40 overs.

Leaders Shillingstone who have only lost once this season, attacked form the start and had 50 on the board in just eight overs.

Wyrill (1-32) and Legg (1-10) eventually dismissed both openers with 73 on the board, but an unbroken partnership of 70 between Olly Morgan (39no) and Ben Hill (31no) saw them home comfortably.

■ Top batting performances: Steve Gerety (Martinstown) 90; Simon Mitchem (Dorchester) 80 not out; Dan Belt (Dorchester) 66 not out; Luke Voss (Charlton Down) 66 not out; Steve Tucker (Cattistock) 62; Ed Nichols (Martinstown) 54

■ Top bowling performances: Jack Walklett (Cattistock) 6-24

GOLF Lyme

Lee on top in Langmoor Trophy

LEE Caddy had an excellent round of golf to finish + 6 in the Langmoor Trophy a bogey competition.

In second place was Charlie Lane, +3, one ahead of third placed James Turner.

The seniors' July stableford was a closely fought affair and with the best score of the day to win division one was Paul Galloway with 40 points from Patrick Duke, 39, and Michael Gill, 37.

The division two title was won by Gareth Vaughan 39 points from Tony Johnstone, 38, and Dave Dallas, 37.

Matthew Watson, 39 points, showed the way in the midweek stableford winning from Ian Mudford 38 points and club captain Roger Seed, 36 in 3rd

Ladies captain Rosie Jackman had her captain's day where the theme was 'best of British'.

Over 65 ladies all dressed up in their red, white and blue, truly entering the spirit of the day and all enjoyed a Texas scramble before having a wonderful meal and wind down after the day.

There were winners but in the end everyone won by simply having a good time.

West Bay Sea Angling Club

James turns the tables

JAMES Lawrence turned the tables this year in winning this year's Frank & Peggy Daw Memorial Trophy. Last year he picked up the wooden spoon, but a good haul of fish saw him comfortably win the title.

Disappointingly only five junior members signed up to fish last Saturday for the match which took place on East Pier, West Bay; this may have been due to a number of other events happening on the day.

The weather was dry but a brisk south westerly wind kept temperatures on the chilly side. Sea conditions were clear but increasingly choppy.

After a very slow start the competition finally kicked off with the first fish of the day; a nice sizeable corkwing wrasse for last year's winner Nathan McMaster.

This lead was short lived however as Lawrence answered with a double-shot of weever's followed by a sizeable ballan wrasse of over twice the weight of McMaster's corkwing.

Lawrence continued to catch with further wrasse and a pout which gave him a comfortable lead.

During the last hour only one fish came to the scales, a blenny caught by Harry Courtice and this was enough to secure third place, but it was Lawrence, last year's winner of the wooden spoon, who claimed the trophy beating McMaster into second. All fish were returned.

The junior section would like to thank the Daw family for supporting this event, whilst Richard 'Tiny' Daw, son of the late Frank and Peggy, would like to thank all the juniors and parents who turned out to take part in his late parent's memorial match.

RESULTS

Firs prosper as Cedars lose

FIRS have regained top spot in the Morning League after Cedars slipped to defeat.

Pat Anderson, Chris Legg and Chris Everest scored a 14-7 win over Gum Trees, whilst Cedars were beaten by John Boxall, Tony Harrison and John Davies's Kingwoods 15-5.

Hazels are making a late bid for the title with Brian Cattell, Barbara Jenkins and Tony Sharood scoring 14 shots without reply to smash the Ebonies 17-3, and are now only two points behind the Firs.

Sylvia and Mike Fletcher and Mel Hargett's Dogwoods took a 12-0 lead against the Junipers, finally winning 16-7, and join the Cedars and Hazels in chasing the Firs.

Phil Benton, Chris Clarke and Pal Hallett's Beeches finished with a two count to draw with Gordon Lee, Peter Varney and Martin Wilton's Larches 12-12.

Jack Russells, having hit the top of the Evening League last week, suffered defeat this week at the paws of Julien Swinburne, Wilton and Barry Mapson's Dalmations, who finished with a four count to win 19-13.

Meanwhile Penny and Robin Pither and Paul Hallett's Foxhounds are closing in on the leaders after hunting down the Great Danes 21-5, whilst Keith Jenkins, Keith Peraux and Mike Fletcher Harriers scored a three on the final end to beat Elk Hounds 11-10.

Gordon Lee, Reg Dodd and Andy Marsh's Collies finished 2,2,3,1 to see off Kerry Blues 17-9, whilst the Beagles of Liz Walker, Peter Sandall and Ivor Parker came from 5-6 down to beat Labradors 15-8.

Ayunga goal blow for Senior

Bridport 0 Dorchester Town 1

JONAH Ayunga's goal in the first minute of added time dealt a blow to Bridport manager Trevor Senior.

Not because it gave the Magpies victory, but it enhanced the former Bridport Youth's chances of signing for the county town rather than his home town.

Senior had his eye on Ayunga who impressed with the youth team last year, and was hoping that he might join the Bees.

However he has also had trials with Dorchester Town and already impressed manager Mark Jermyn, before his powerful header from Matt Oldring's corner won the game.

Senior said: "Being a local lad, I was hoping he might join us, but he wants to play at the highest level, and you can't knock him for that.

"He's obviously still a bit raw, but there is something to work with, that's for sure, so we will have to wait and see."

Bridport opened at a pace and Jamie Symes fired in a vicious 30 yard shot inside 17 seconds that whistled over Shane Murphy's crossbar. Two minutes later he was at it again, this time a 25-yard shot straight at the Magpies keeper.

It was 20 minutes before Dorchester threatened the home goal when Jason Brooks fired just over the angle of the goal frame from distance.

Unfortunately Bridport lost Chris Clarke on 27 minutes through a groin strain, and almost immediately Jamie Symes clipped the near angle of the goal frame froman acute angle after a neat turn near the corner flag.

Although the game settled down to be a good game of nip and tuck, Dorchester didn't produce another shot of note in the first half which finished with Warren Byerley hooking a Symes cross just over the top right corner of Murphy's goal.

Roles were reversed at the start of the second half when Charlie Davis' low 25-yard shot just 13 seconds after the restart was fumbled by Bees keeper Ashley Weeks, who grabbed it at the second attempt.

On 54 minutes the new signing from Poole Town cut in from the right and fired in a left foot 30-yarder straight at the keeper.

Dorchester continued to hold the initiative and Shane Evans was required to head Neil Martin's teasing cross out from under the crossbar.

Alan Irvine might have given the Magpies the lead just on the hour when Martin played a ball into the box, but the former Southampton player had to stretch and could only poke his shot into Weeks' legs

Jamie Symes then turned Oldring inside the six yard box, but shot straight at replacement keeper Alan Walker-Harris.

Chances were beginning to appear and it took a great tackle from triallist Sam Peach, on as a substitute, to block Ben Watson's angled shot after a great run by the former Grecian, before Weeks just got his fingertips to the evergreen Nick Crittenden's shot to turn it for a corner.

Darren Watts back in the red and black then deflected Oldring's shot behind after the assistant manager had laid the ball in his path after good work by the impressive Davis.

Ayunga who had come on as a sub then put a shot onto the roof of the net, before he rose in the centre of goal to head the winner, a defender only able to head his powerful effort in off the crossbar.

CRICKET - Crosby Cup

THE final round robin games are now nearing conclusion with still some places to be played for.

With the top two teams in each group qualify for the Crosby Cup and the third and fourth for the Plate, AP Chant and Mapperton by winning their section have qualified for the Crosby Cup but all the other positions knockout places are reliant on the results of Soakers and Oddfellows , who each have two matches yet to play.

Tiger and Quarterdeck have been eliminated; the latter by run rate; whilst Chideock

Vets must win their last match to have any chance of staying in the competition.

RESULTS

Group A: AP Chant (150-7) beat Chideock Vets 144-9 by 6 runs; White Lion (105-6) beat Beaminster School (104 all out) by 4 wickets

Men lose again but it's a better week for the ladies

STILL no win for the men in the Dorset Championship. This time they went down 49-58 at Branksome with just one winning rink.

Chris Thorne, Tom Tocher, John Carter and Barry Shortland 19-15; Brian Rumble, Bill Payne, Brian Conisbee and Craig Bosher 15-22; BobTaylor, Keith Brooks, Fred Pomeroy and Ben Jones 15-21.

There was a welcome win for the A team in Dorset West Area Division 1. Their 59-32 victory over Sherborne lifted them clear of bottom placed Wellworthy.

Clive Langdon, Mike Smith, Mike Stevenson and Chris Taylor always in front 21-12; Ken Sanger, Phillip Wilson, John Block and Roy Lidington 20-16; Peter Scott, David Eastman, David Gundry and Andy Spiller 18-24.

In Division Two the B team were unlucky not to win on two rinks away to Sherborne. Dave Smith, Geoff Strange, Alan Skelton and B Parker were 16-8 up at 14 ends but lost 17-22; Derek Crocker, Peter Carnell, Dave Hocking and Tony Hutchinson (a relatively new player) 12-28; John Ireland, John Tunney, Arthur Stone; Sam Dunn won 18-14. Overall 47 – 64.

Both ladies teams hosted Broadstone with the A team winning 65-60 overall in Division 1. Margaret Clapp; Sheila Jones; Alison Tibble; Frances Hewitt with an impressive 34-11; Pat Cornick; Gill Hunt; Laura Taylor; Sylvia Smith 21-14; Barbara Iverson; Marion Carter; Janet Tattershall; Pamela Daters 10-35.

The B team, bottom of Division 2 also had a good win 63-59 overall against Broadstone B. Christine Cowdrey; Mary Eastman; Mary Corfield; Chris Robbins always in front 25-17; Thelma Pratt; Pauline Newitt; Dinah Wilson; Liz Newman 20-13, winning all the last 6 ends; Delphine Street; Marion Tocher; Janet Bird; Margaret Strange 18-29.

In the men's South Dorset League Bridport A were only six shots adrift of Dorchester A after 16 ends, but the hosts came through to win 44-67 overall. B Rumble; B Payne; B Conisbee; C Bosher 14-22; B. Taylor; K Brooks; P Tibble; F Pomeroy 14-21; C. Thorne; B Shortland; J Carter; D Roberts 16-24.

The B team had a good win over bottom side Dorchester B 74-47. C Langdon, M Smith, D Eastman and C Taylor 26-16; D. Hoskins, P Wilson, Dan Hoskins and R Lidington, an impressive 29-12; P Scott, J Ireland, J Block and A Spiller 19-23.

In Division Two Bridport C put up a good fight against Wellworthy B at home but went down 38-54 and remain bottom. D Aylott, B Pratt and A Skelton 17-20; D Smith, R Herbert, P Carnell and B Parker 10-18; D Robbins, P Billett, D Hocking and T Hutchinson 11-16.

What a fine six rink friendly game the men had against tourists Haford Brotherhood. At 20 ends they were nine shots up overall but with only Brian Iverson's rink scoring on the 21st ends, it was a nail biting finish with Bridport winning 114–113. Top rink: F Pomeroy, Peter Scott, Brian Pratt and B Jones 26–15.

The friendly triples against Chard was lost 53-57; Dinah Wilson, Geoff Strange and D Hockings winning 21-7.

Bridport won a mixed game friendly at home to Tiverton 131–95, with top rink B Rumble, M Eastman, A Day and D Gundry 24-10.

Bees take home Chard Challenge Cup

Bridport 4
Chard Town 0

ULTIMATELY this was a fairly easy victory for Bridport over Chard Town, but it didn't look that way to begin with.

This pre-season friendly which doubled as the annual Chard Chairman's Challenge Cup started with the Robins' Louis Gilman firing over the top from 25-yards after three minutes.

Four minutes later a long ball over the top put Ed Butcher free down the left channel who fired in a fierce left foot shot that keeper Ashley Weeks parried away for a corner.

Chard were then unlucky not to have taken the lead in the 12th minute.

Braden Symes did well to hook the ball across goal where the impressive Scott Holland managed to get his head to the ball, but his flick header struck the angle of the goal frame and went over.

Bridport finally responded. Tom Richardson had done well to get in a good volley after hooking the ball from behind him, which took a deflection off a defender.

Robins keeper Jason Hutching going the wrong way, somehow managed to stick out his right hand to stop the ball.

Weeks came to the Bees rescue again on 16 minutes when Alan Hill missed a through ball, allowing James Boyland to run on goal, but once again the former Portland keeper palmed away his angled shot.

Slowly Bridport got a grip on the game and began to look menacing going forward, and they showed their intent when Adam Symes picked out Richardson who forced Hutchings into a good save from his angled volley after muscling his way past Shaun Wells-Burr.

However Hutchings might have done better on 21 minutes when Bridport took the lead following a free kick given for handball 25 yards out and level with the with the edge of the penalty area.

Ryan Dovell starting his first game since recovering from a serious knee injury, whipped the ball over the wall and inside the near post, and although Hutchings managed to get his hand to the ball but could not stop it going in the net.

The game settled down after this with both sides playing some neat football without really troubling the keepers, before an excellent build up saw Bridport extend the lead on 35 minutes.

The experienced Warren Byerley saw Matt Condliffe making a run down the left touchline and skilfully cushioned his header from a ball out the Bees defence, into the wing-back's path.

Condliffe flicked the ball past a defender as he cut along the byeline before lobbing the advancing Hutchings from the acutest of angles.

Then a minute from the interval the Chard defence missed Adam Symes' right wing cross where Richardson controlled the ball before rifling a low shot into the corner of the net to give the Bees a three goal cushion at halftime.

The second half saw Bridport take more control of the match, with Richardson unlucky not to have added to his goal.

First he was denied by Leigh Bailey as he tried to force the ball home from close range, before he thudded a header against the crossbar from substitute Rhys Hayter's cross.

On 70 minutes however he turned provider when he robbed Robin's substitute Ryan Parrish near the byeline and dinked in a cross for Rhys Hayter to volley home at the far post from close range to complete the scoring.

Chard refused to give up and kept going, and after Max Westlake worked hard to hold off two challenges when the ball fell to Jamie Barfoot, he lobbed his shot over the top.

Shane Evans, who once again went about his business unobtrusively in the heart of the Bees defence, almost scored after he broke forward, but after exchanging and receiving a deft pass from Byerley, was thwarted by the outrushing Hutchings who spread himself to block his effort.

Chard should not be too disappointed by the result, for they played some excellent football particularly in the opening quarter of the match, but Bridport's superior fitness showed through as the game progressed.

◆ OPENER: Ryan Dovell curls the ball over the Chard Town wall to open the scoring
